

CONTENTS

Symposium:

Reconsidering the History of the Relationship of Kami and Buddhas, Focusing on those Responsible for Enshrining Kami

Papers:

- 1) Rituals and Organization at Ancient ShrinesKase Naoya.....(4)
- 2) Medieval Shrines and the Practice of Collecting Donations
.....Ohta Naoyuki.....(25)
- 3) Kami-Buddha Relations at Holy Mountains in the Early Modern
PeriodEndo Jun.....(37)
- 4) Shrines, Shrine Officials and the Priesthood following the Separation of Kami and BuddhasFujita Hiromasa.....(58)

Comments:

Hojo Katsutaka, Hikino Kyouzuke(98)

Group 1

- Changes in the Taboos against Buddhist Monks at the Grand Shrines of Ise in the Middle AgesFuruya Yasushi..... (137)
- A Study of Ceremonies on the Occasion of the Dispatch of the Saiō to IseOchiai Atsuko..... (139)
- Marine Workers and Mobility in the Early Modern Period, and its Relation to Religious PracticeSetsu Takahiko..... (143)
- The Disruption of the Tradition of Yoshida Shinto Ideology between Yoshida Kanemigi and his Descendants, Focusing on How Sakurai Toshimoto (Head of Ichinomiya Keta Shrine in Noto Province) Returned the Ideology to the Original Family Kaburaki Norihiko..... (146)
- A Study of Shirakawa Family Documents in the Konkō LibraryYamaguchi Takeshi..... (149)
- Motoori Norinaga's Kojikiden and Scholars at Ise no JingūNakano Yuzo..... (151)
- Emperor Kōmei and Rituals to Deities of Heaven and EarthShishido Tadao..... (154)
- Development of the Concept of Original Sin, and Ceremonies of Lustration and Purification (misogi-harae)Hirano Takakuni..... (157)

Group 2

- The Festival of Mishima Shrine in Early Modern Izu, focusing on Rituals and Sacred Offerings as Described in Mishimagū goshinji shiki (“Ritual procedures of Mishima shrine”)Yoshinaga Hiroaki..... (160)
- Issues and Prospects for Research on Shinto Shrine Food Offerings (shinsen)Yoshino Tooru..... (162)
- A Study of the Kaisei jinja saishiki gyōji sahō (“Revised ritual procedures”) issued by the JingiinTakeuchi Masayuki..... (164)
- On the origins of the Takaoka Mikurumayama FestivalTakao Tetsufumi..... (167)
- Shinto Shrines under Conditions of Depopulation: A Case Study of Shrines in the Area of Takaoka-gun, Kōchi PrefectureFuyutuki Ritsu..... (170)

| | | |
|---|--------------------|-------|
| The Impact of Declining Birthrate and an Aging Population on Japanese Annual Events: the Case of Ōmori-machi, Yokote City, Akita Prefecture | Suga Naoko..... | (172) |
| Shinto in the Context of the Great East Japan Earthquake and Tsunami | Katsuta Isamu..... | (176) |

Group 3

| | | |
|---|-----------------------|-------|
| Okuni Takamasa’s Understanding of Kami | Kaminishi Wataru..... | (180) |
| The Shinto Doctrines of Urata Nagatami | Takeda Sachiya..... | (184) |
| The Shinto Thought of Kubo Sueshige, Focusing on the Meiji Period | Kobayashi Takero..... | (187) |
| Shimaji Mokurai’s argument of “Shinto is not a Religion” | Tonami Hiroyuki..... | (189) |
| A Study of Tanaka Jigohei’s Unprecedented Claim that “The Prayer of the Great Purification, (O-harae-no-kotoba) Is a Hotbed of Superstition and Deviant Religion, and Contradicts the Japanese National Polity” | Togo Shigehiko..... | (191) |
| A Review of Kakei Katsuhiko’s thought, from the Perspective of Research on Shinto Education | Nakamichi Goichi..... | (194) |
| A Review on Modern Shintoists | Murase Yoshiko..... | (197) |
| Organizational Management and Religious Instruction in Early Misogikyō | Ogihara Minori..... | (199) |

Panel Discussion

| | | |
|---|--|-------|
| Shinto and Natural Disasters in the Ancient Period | | (202) |
| Shinto and the Great East Japan Earthquake: Thoughts on Support and Restoration | | (210) |